Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim s 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Pat. No. 4,771,141 to Flumigan

Flumigan '141 teaches Applicant's claim limitations including : a "housing" - including 14,16, an "urging member" - 92, a "switch" - including 32,44, a "push-push mechanism" - including 66,68,70,74,76,78,80, a "movable member" - part 22 or alternatively 102 can be read on broad limitation. Both interpretations have been relied on alternatively for specific claims (as indicated) where lack of claims' interdependence makes them broad in that respect. The law of anticipation requires that a distinction be made between the invention described or taught and the invention claimed. It does not require that the reference "teach" what the subject patent teaches. Assuming that a reference is properly

Art Unit: 3676

"prior art," it is only necessary that the claims under consideration "read on" something disclosed in the reference, i.e., all limitations of the claim are found in the reference, or "fully met" by it. Kalman v. Kimberly-Clark Corp., 218 USPQ 789.

As regards claim 2, part 22 reads on "movable member".

As regards claim 3, part 102 reads on "movable member" and part 32 on "first switch terminals".

As regards claim 3, "front and back" reads on left and right as regards Fig 5.

As regards claim 7, part 32 teaches "second lock members".

As regards claim 8, part 22 is a "columnar portion" and is "attached" via other elements to planar housing portion to which the first lock members (44,44) are mounted.

As regards claim 9, projecting parts 70 read on "engaging pieces". Claims in a pending application should be given their broadest reasonable interpretation. In re Pearson, 181 USPQ 641 (CCPA 1974).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
